

National Youth Preparedness Council

Are you a student in the 8th, 9th, 10th or 11th grade who lived through a disaster?

Have you participated or trained in emergency preparedness activities?

Have you participated in community activities or served in a leadership role?

Then you are encouraged to apply to the Department of Homeland Security's,
Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA)
National Youth Preparedness Council

DEADLINE TO APPLY: MARCH 31, 2019

The FULL application & details are available online

Submissions must include:

- The complete the application form
- 2 letters of recommendations and
- 2017-2019 academic records/transcripts

You can visit the website here

<https://community.fema.gov/applytoYPC>

Download the application to submit a PDF copy here

What is the Youth Preparedness Council? (YPC)

Formed in 2012, the Youth Preparedness Council offers opportunity for youth leaders to serve on a distinguished national council and participate in the Youth Preparedness Council Summit in Washington, D.C. During their two-year term, the youth leaders will complete both a local and national-level project and share their ideas regarding youth disaster preparedness with FEMA leadership and national organizations.

If you have questions, you are highly encouraged to visit their FAQ page and the Contact Us page. For further inquiries, email FEMA-Prepare@fema.dhs.gov